College of Physiotherapy

Awareness program on Anti-Ragging in college

College of physiotherapy has conducted an awareness program on anti-ragging in the college campus for the students by Dr. Thrishala Noronha, Associate professor, college of physiotherapy, on 02.12.2020.

Dr. Thrishala addressed the students about the emergence and issue of ragging in India and also explained the legal consequences of involvement in such activities. She also reiterated that anyone who is actively or passively, or is a part of a conspiracy to promote ragging, is liable to be punished. She also addressed the issue of drug abuse and requested all the students should stay away from drug abuse. Dr. Thrishala also created awareness on how the technology can be used in times of danger to women across the state. As the head of institution Dean Dr. Rajasekar also addressed the gathering, he briefed them about the different strategies and action plan for curbing the problem of ragging in the college by adopting various measures and activities.
