guest of the sports. All the athletes marched with their germ colour dresses. It was a grand sight to see the athletes march with measured footsteps and the swinging of the arms. Dean Dr.N. M. Jose welcomed the esteemed chief guest, gathering and emphasized on the importance of sports in one's life. He also motivated students to play sports in serious manner so that they could further compete in University and state level competitions. The sports day inaugural ceremony was done by playing Badminton by Chief Guest and Dean.

The sports event started with Throw ball followed by running race (400m, 200m, 100m) in the morning and in the afternoon Long jump and Tug of War. The last event of the day was the prize distribution. Chief Guest and faculty members awarded the winners with medals. He also congratulated the prize winners. Thus ended the sports day of our college which was a day of great excitement.
