ANTI-RAGGING AWARENESS WEEK REPORT

Srinivas University, located in the vibrant city of Mangaluru, Karnataka, is a distinguished institution dedicated to providing high-quality education and fostering an environment of innovation and research. Established with the vision to be a global leader in education, Srinivas University offers a diverse range of undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programs across various disciplines, including Engineering, Management, Health Sciences, Social Sciences, and Humanities.

Ragging remains a serious issue across educational institutions worldwide, posing a significant threat to the safety, well-being, and mental health of students. At Srinivas University, Mangaluru, we recognize the urgent need to combat this harmful practice and promote a culture of respect and inclusivity. The Anti-Ragging Awareness Program, conducted over a week, serves as a vital initiative to educate and empower students about the dangers of ragging and the importance of maintaining a ragging-free environment on campus.

At Srinivas University, Mangaluru, fostering a safe and inclusive environment for all students is a top priority. Recognizing the need to address the serious issue of ragging, the university is committed to creating a campus culture where every student feels secure, respected, and valued. The Anti-Ragging Awareness Program Week, held from August 12 to 18, serves as a crucial initiative in this effort. This weeklong program aims to educate students, faculty, and staff about the harmful effects of ragging and the importance of maintaining a ragging-free campus. By raising awareness, the program seeks to empower students to stand up against ragging, understand the legal and psychological repercussions associated with it, and promote a culture of mutual respect and dignity.

Anti-Ragging Awareness Program

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Week was held between 12th to 18th of August 2024 at the various departments of the university to make the campus free from ragging. The students were briefed about the UGC regulations & legal complications which they would get into, if they commit the mistakes. The information was passed through expert counsellors and local police officials regarding how address these problems when students face it when it happens in the campus and also outside the campus or hostel.

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Week is not just about compliance with legal mandates; it reflects the university's commitment to upholding the highest standards of student welfare. Through various activities such as workshops, seminars, interactive sessions, and awareness campaigns, Srinivas University aims to educate students on the severe consequences of ragging and instill a sense of responsibility and accountability. The program also provides a platform for students to voice their concerns, share their experiences, and learn about the support systems available to them. By doing so, the university not only ensures a safe learning environment but also nurtures a community where every student can thrive without fear or intimidation.
